Isolation

This can be related to a COVID 19 isolation, a person walking alone on the beach, a single person image displaying the devastation of being alone (elderly person), it can even be a street image.

“CHANGE”

Our world is transforming, sometimes evolving but also regressing. This can be through development, such as growth, building and renewal, but also degeneration: ruining by the actions of man or decomposing as a result of nature.

Your image needs to show the effect of a change to our state, Western Australia, and indicate in its one word title the sort of change that is happening.

Members of WAPF affiliated camera clubs are invited to enter this competition by submitting digital images. A panel of WAPJA judges will select the 50 finalists, which will be printed by Fitzgerald Photo.

Imaging and exhibited at the WA Maritime Museum. The winning entry will be chosen by the judging panel and announced at the prize presentation ceremony. Visitors to the museum will be invited to submit votes for a People's Choice prize.

WAPF PhotoWest 2021

Tickets available the end of July 21. Due to Council COVID restrictions there will only be 130 tickets.

The poster for Photowest 2021 features a black and white photograph of a large industrial building with a bridge over a river. The WAPF logo is in the top right corner. Below the photo is a Nikon logo on the left and a 'Team Digital' logo on the right. The central text reads: 'NORTHAM PHOTOGRAPHY GROUP HOST CLUB FOR 2021 PHOTOWEST 3RD-5TH SEPT 2021'. Below this, it states: 'Planning for PhotoWest 2021 is on schedule based at Northam Town Hall & Lesser Hall, www.northamcaravanpark.com - northamcaravanpark@bigpond.com - (08) 96221620'. A list of accommodation options follows, including Riverside Hotel, Farmers Home Hotel, Northam Motel, Kelinda House, Grass Valley Tavern, Dukes Inn, Fairway Manor, Liddelow on Avon B&B, Avon Valley Chalets, Brooklyn Chalet, and Avon Brook Wines. A note at the bottom says 'AirB&B has several Northam houses.' The bottom section of the poster shows two hot air balloons at dawn, one with 'WINDWARD BALLOON ADVENTURES' written on it.

Saturday 25 September 2021

DATE CLAIMER

Please put this date into your Club Calendar

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

What does it mean to you?

Whether you walk city streets or wander bush trails, you can indulge your imaginative self with club members and individuals from all around Australia. What an amazing opportunity to connect through photography and to interpret the good and the bad of Environmental Impact. Images must be captured on the day and metadata must be included when the images are uploaded for judgement. Individuals do not need to be APS members.

Lisa Kurtz, well-known and much respected Brisbane photographer, will hold a Zoom Session before and after the event. More information closer to the date.

COST: $20 per club or $5 if you are participating as an individual.

REWARD:

- The winning club will receive a $500 MOMENTO Pro Photobook voucher (to be divided at Club's discretion)
- All participating clubs will have their images displayed in a gallery on the APS website
- All participating clubs will receive a Certificate of participation to place on their website
- The individual with most points will receive a $150 MOMENTO Pro Photobook voucher and certificate

WAPJA Scoring System

What do we look for?

1. Identify the genre.
2. Identify the strong elements in the image?
3. Does the image tell a visual story?
4. Composition, editing, creativity, colour tones, lighting.

After stages 1 - 4 we then score the image if it has impact or a story line we start at Bronze or higher.

5. Editing flaws (This is where points are deducted)
6. Judges then suggest improvements.

WAPJA Scoring System

WAPJA EXHIBITION SCORING SYSTEM

- Version 9, August 2017

LEVEL	DESCRIPTION
Level 8 Gold+ distinction	All judging criteria are strong. Combined elements have produced a supreme example of art photography. The image displays the highest level of excellence in art photography.
Level 7 Gold	Most judging criteria are expertly handled. A very strong image displaying a high level of excellence in art photography. Technical standard is very high.
Level 6 Silver	Many elements are very good and the technical standard is high. A strong image with good evidence for classification as art photography. Clear evidence of intent to combine skill and artistry. Successful visual communication has been achieved.
Level 5 Bronze	Sound image with at least one strong element. Approaches art photography - message present but not strong. Any flaws are minor or compensated by other successful elements. Some intent to combine skill and artistry.
Level 4	Possibly no flaws but no significant strengths. Content and medium may be acceptable but message is not clear or strong. Centre of interest usually obvious. Usually technically good - often call a record shot.
Level 3	Some attempt has been made to control content and medium. Needs more effort to convey message and meaning. Centre of interest may not be clear. Flaws and/or distractions may be evident.
Level 2	Quality of content and medium is not adequate. Improvement required in the craft of photography. Little attempt at deliberate composition or light handling. Flaws and distractions may be present. Snapshot quality
Level 1	Little evidence of good camera skills An unacceptable image for a photographic exhibition No indication of the centre of interest. Flaws and distractions usually present.

(Note: the presence of flaws or distractions will devalue any image, even those with a strong message.)

Judge Summary

Most common mistakes:

- Cropping
- Editing flaws
- Limited storyline
- Composition
- Horizons are not level
